LET S EAT!: MAJI TEACHES MONGO WHAT IT MEANS TO EAT CLEAN! (HARDBACK)

Robert D. Reed Publishers, United States, 2013. Hardback. Book Condition: New. Steve Hayes (illustrator). 259 x 257 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Maji and Mongo were dogs of the same breed but they were very different, very different indeed! One a sad couch potato, the other a happy playful tornado! When they met, Mongo ate chips and dips, cookies and candy. He didn t even know how great water could taste! But Maji shows him that food from the ground is the best all around and that being healthy and strong can come in handy. Don t miss the fun these two pups have together! Join them and make up your mind to eat clean forever! The Maji and Mongo books are lifestyle picture books for 3 to 7 year olds that address the issue of outdoor play and clean eating in a way that makes it sound like irresistible fun. They use a rhyming format that children love. The illustrations of Maji and Mongo are adorable and quickly capture the attention and the hearts of children. The books also contain valuable tips for parents who want to help their children be more active and enjoy more wholesome foods. LET S EAT addresses the importance of drinking water (versus soda), how it gives one energy and vitality. It presents guidelines on how to eat healthy in a fun way, i.e., eating clean, eating organic so you don t have scrambled-up brains, eating foods that came from the ground versus from a bag, avoiding GMOs, pesticides, chemicals, and junk food in general. Author Dr. J. Renae Norton says, What my research was showing me was that the American food supply is polluted and that many of those suffering from disordered eating, actually suffer from food addictions that are the...
