Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Tenth Annual Report of the Bureau of Industrial Statistics of Maryland: 1901, Thomas a Smith, Chief The Tenth Annual Report of the Bureau of Industrial Statistics herein presented will compare favorably with its predecessors. Its presentation of the industrial, agricultural and mechanical conditions of the State in tabular form gives evidence in figures that the people of Maryland have progressed along profitable lines, as well as conservative ones. An analysis of the pages, or even a casual reading, by our Legislators, ought to give sufficient reasons for the enactment into law of the several recommendations made by the Bureau, and it is with this hope that especial attention is called to the needs of the Bureau for financial aid, so that it may enlarge its scope and fill the field of its endeavors with continued and extended beneficial results. The Bureau can be made of great benefit to employer and employe by the adoption of proper legislation, thus, in a conservative way, avoiding industrial troubles. All efforts in the industrial field now tend toward conciliation and arbitration, and Maryland should be in the front rank with the leading States of the union in enacting legislation of this character. It is gratifying to the Bureau to note that the record of strikes in Maryland indicate that they, both in number and cost, have been much less in 1901 than in 1900. This, however, is 110 evidence that wages has increased or that industrial conditions are any better. A close perusal of the report will satisfy the most skeptical reader that with the increased combinations of capital, the advancement in the use of improved machinery and the...
