Without Regret (Paperback)

By Elaine Mingus

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Do you ever feel like your God-given dreams are colliding with your God-given reality? A vicious fight leaves three childhood best friends estranged. After fourteen years of living without each other, an unexpected death causes a domino effect that brings them back together at a pivotal time. As all three face their own personal obstacles can they allow God to direct their lives, so they can live a life without regret? Cora, Carmen and Kate were best friends. That is, until the big blowout that ripped their friendship to shreds. When Carmen's husband dies suddenly, she discovers that her unborn baby has developed the same hereditary condition that took her husband's life. She is thrust into a medical world that she never thought she'd be a part of -- one that she once dreamed of entering. Cora, a stay at home mom, is sending her third, and final, child off to kindergarten and she can finally re-enter the world of professional singing. But when she finds her dreams of stardom colliding with her dreams of...
