I should like to learn some of these, continued Alexander. As we have been talking so much about those things, I dare say I should easily understand these. Oh! here is a poem on the Comet; I will learn that. So the young student took the book, and settled himself steadily to his lesson. Presently he looked up and said, I do not quite know what all this means, mamma. Have you ever seen a comet Yes; I saw the one which appeared in the winter of the year 1835. What was it like Like a small star surrounded by a faint shining mist. Then it did not look so very grand and beautiful as this poem describes Comets are of different sizes, my dear boy; and the only one I have ever seen was comparatively small, while the one to which...
