Genevieve Campbell, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Dreams that Led Me to University of Minnesota Biomed Library as well as the work of Dr. Russell Blaylock, a board-certified Neurosurgeon. They repeated over and over. I was walking between all red brick buildings, concrete walkway underneath. The image was comfortable and serene, always a sunny day. I would walk lost for a time but always ended up in an area of lots of hallways, corridors, walking inside then outside following paths, then back inside again. I finally reached a place where everything was blue, sapphire blue. Then one day in 2009, I was instructed travel to downtown Minneapolis and go to the Central Library. As I worked with a librarian there, she informed that the materials I was looking for was at the Biomed Library at U of M. It is open to the public so I will find what I m looking for there. I was instructed to get on a bus, it isn t necessary to drive. So I did. I called ahead to the bus company to find out which buses I needed. As it turned out, there was a city bus straight from my area directly to U of M. Reached the campus with all the kids in college, realizing I had never set foot on this campus before. Luckily, I was dropped off at Coffman Hall on the west bank, the Union Hall for campus, where an information booth was occupied. The young woman got a map and circled where I needed to be. Upon walking out the back door of Coffman Hall, I noticed I was walking between all red brick buildings, concrete walkways on a clear and...
